

We must stop the increasing consolidation of media outlets into fewere and fewer hands. Government regulations are requied to keep media outlets from controlling too much of the media in any one community. Companies must not own radio and print media in the same community. Our democracy is at stake!